

Personal Audio Distribution System

The CAM16 Headphone Distribution System provides 16 discrete remote headphone outputs with individual selection of up to 8 source inputs and volume control. The PM1 paging microphone or similar enables priority announcements to be made to all users, regardless of their selected source.

Using up to 16 CAS16 extension units this system can provide 256 individual headphone outputs.

Perfect for an Airport Lounge, Control Center or for wired simultaneous translation.

